There have been several instances recently of walkers, joggers and/or runners, and cyclists who have ignored the warning lights and signs at the Aircraft Landing Dynamics Facility (ALDF) along Bush Road. These lights are used to inform people of the existence of a hazardous condition. When they are lit, even if the gates are open, the area is CLOSED to all except authorized operational personnel. If personnel exercising continue to violate the signs and lights, it will be necessary to permanently close that area during work hours.
